Park Description

High Ridge Park offers the only true corporate campus setting within the City of Stamford, Fairfield County, CT. The park consists of 6 first class office buildings, each architecturally distinct, as they were designed by famed architect, Victor Bisharat.

Surrounded by almost 40 acres of mature trees, beautifully landscaped grounds and featuring a centrally located spring fed pond with fountains, the park offers a tranquil campus atmosphere unique to the Stamford market.

Right off the Merritt Parkway, only minutes from I-95 and an express bus to the train that stops right there, High Ridge Park is a commuter's dream come true.

Location & Directions

High Ridge Park is conveniently situated off High Ridge Road (Route 137) just off Exit 35 on the Merritt Parkway (Route 15).

High Ridge Road is a prime commercial corridor with Class A office buildings and nationally recognizable retail tenants such as Lord & Taylor, Borders Books, Eastern Mountain Sports, and Starbucks, all of which are located within five minutes of the property.

The Merritt Parkway is one of Fairfield County's primary thoroughfares (along with I-95). Despite a very private setting, High Ridge Park is conveniently located four miles north of downtown Stamford and is serviced by Express Bus to the Metro North Station.
